

Ethylene expansion project award in Russia

July 22, 2005

Paris, July 22, 2005

Technip has been awarded an ethylene capacity expansion project by Kazanorgsintez in Kazan in the Russian Federation. The project involves the modernization and capacity expansion of three existing ethylene plants at Kazan. The combined capacity of the three plants will be increased from the